ATTRACTIONS

Zombie Walk

Hungry for brains? The 8th Annual Downtown Lansing Zombie Walk invades the Capital City on Day-1 of the festival in support of the Greater Lansing Food Bank. Please check page 10 for more details.

Trick-or-Treating

Kids 12 and under are invited to trick-or-treat at the vendor booths in the center of the exhibit hall. Pick up a trail map at our information booth and join in the fun.

Mystery Machine

Zoinks! Your gang can get photos with a replica of the famous cartoon van lovingly built by our crew. It is the centerpiece of the show along with a huge inflatable haunted house and Scooby Doo.

Hero Shield

A replica of Captain America's mighty shield will be on display thanks to Aspiring Games Foundation. You'll learn more about manufacturing as you see how it was machined locally, and you can even make your own hero shield to take home.

Costume Contests

On Sunday, you can walk our stage in your awesome homemade creation for a prize package valued at over $100 awarded to Best Adult, Runner-up Adult and Best Kid Costume. Register at the Shuto Con booth.

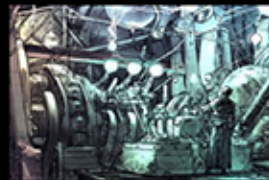

Ecto-1

With lights flashing, siren blaring and an unlicensed nuclear reactor on top, this new ghost busting vehicle from the latest reboot film was specially built for our event. Who you gonna call?

The 501st Legion

Experience the Star Wars universe as many of your favorite characters roam the hall. Also visit their featured exhibit to see amazing fan-built costumes and props on display. Charity donations are appreciated.

Mad Scientist Laboratory

Science, technology, engineering, math and the art of design (known as STEAM) is showcased with a ghoulish twist with interactive exhibits hosted by REACH Studio Art Center, ITEC Lansing and more.

Batman and Batpod

Our Capital City transforms into Gotham with Lansing Batman and his crime-fighting motorcycle along with heroes Red Hood and 1930s Bombshell Batwoman. But watch out for Bane and other arch enemies.

Toy Hacking

Along with other fun activities, tinkLAB will be hosting sessions where kids use basic tools to take apart old toys (just like at Sid's house in Toy Story) and fit them back together with creativity and imagination.

Hearse Limo

The newly tricked-out 1972 Cadillac Hearse named "Lillian" can be seen as part of the Monster Monastery showcase brought to you by the enthusiasts behind one of the greatest home haunts in Mid-Michigan.

Jurassic Terror

In a scene right out of a blockbuster movie, see the 20 foot tall T-Rex bearing down on an unsuspecting tour vehicle in this original display custom built by our staff. There's also an animatronic baby triceratops for kiddie photos.

Ghostbusters

Hang out with members of the Great Lakes Ghostbuster Coalition for slime-making demos, the Stay Puft Marshmallow Man and enough proton packs to take care of any spook, spectre or ghost. And watch out for West Michigan Beetlejuice!

Mad Scientist Laboratory

Science, technology, engineering, math and the art of design (STEAM) are showcased with interactive exhibits hosted by REACH Art Studio, MSU College of Engineering, ITEC Lansing and more.

With the esthetic of yesteryear and tech of tomorrow, Capital Steam (Lansing's premier voice for the Mid-Michigan steampunk subculture) brandish their stunning costumes and props "from sprockets to rockets."

Starship Simulator

Become a part of the bridge crew and learn to work together to defend the sector from evil aliens. This is just one of the many fun and innovative activities hosted by the Lansing Makers Network.

CANDY SHANNON

Candy Shannon was born and raised in Jackson, Michigan. After attending her first convention in 2011, Candy debuted her first cosplay - Ursula the Sea Witch from The Little Mermaid. Since then, she has added an extensive number of costumes to her resume, including Miss Piggy, Fiona from Shrek, Queen of Hearts, Peggy Bundy, Penguin from Batman, Captain Hook, Pam Poovey from Archer, and Darla from Finding Nemo.

She is most known for her attention to detail and film-accurate replications, however she is also proud of her original designs. Candy was the cover model for the June 2014 issue of Cosplay+ Magazine and has been featured in numerous articles and interviews on various media platforms, including CNN, MSN and Adult Swim.

Candy is passionate about supporting confidence in cosplay and body acceptance. She writes articles for various blogs on confidence and anti-bullying, including several inspirational videos. She travels to many conventions in the tri-state area, however her full time job is managing a veterinary clinic.

In her spare time, she cohosts a weekly podcast, teaches makeup effects, wig styling, prop building, and cosplay 101 at a local art school, and does makeup effects at a local haunted attraction. Candy also enjoys reading, console gaming and various fandoms like DC Comics, 80's movies and horror films.
