How-To Halloween is a family-friendly festival that celebrates the do-it-yourself spirit of haunt season. For our fifth annual event, we are honoring the female superheroes (and antiheroes) as a force to be reckoned with in a series of guests that we call the Women Of Power. Our mission is to inspire kids and the "kids at heart" to head into their garages, basements or local maker spaces to build something fun. So roll up your sleeves, get creative and have a Happy Halloween!

ZOMBIE WALK

The 9th Annual Downtown Lansing Zombie Walk invades the Capital City once again on Saturday October 13, 2018, and all ages of the undead are welcome to walk for FREE! We ask participants to bring a nonperishable food donation in support of the Greater Lansing Food Bank, and to assemble at noon inside the Lansing Center by Exhibit Hall C.

Once the donations are collected, the horde members will gather on the main stage before being unleashed on the unsuspecting citizens of Lansing, Michigan. Traffic comes to a stand still as we shuffle our way to the steps of the Capitol for the greatest photo op ever seen. Afterwards, we invite the walking dead to return to the Lansing Center for discounted entry into How-To Halloween to compete for big prizes in our Best Zombie Contest on the main stage and join in all the spooktacular fun at the festival.

COSTUME CONTESTS

SATURDAY- BEST ZOMBIE CONTEST

After the Downtown Lansing Zombie Walk, the undead are invited to register at Vendor Booth #1 with Capital City Comic Con (closest to the main stage). The contest starts at 4pm and prize packs will be awarded to Best Zombie and the Runner-Up.

SUNDAY- HOMEMADE COSTUME CONTEST

Register at Vendor Booth #1 with Capital City Comic Con (closest to the main stage) for your chance to get on stage and win tons of great prizes awarded to Best Adult, Runner-up Adult and Best Kid Costumes. (Store bought kids costumes are fine.) It starts at 4pm, so Good Luck!

CAPITAL CITY WONDER WOMAN

We are proud to have Capital City Wonder Woman as our headliner at How-To Halloween 2018. Katie Whittaker of DeWitt is a wife and mother of four, and makes a powerful impression standing 6'4" in her gold trimmed boots. But growing up, Katie had a difficult time with her height because she was always teased about how tall she was. And although it affected her confidence all through her life, she gathered the courage to cosplay as her favorite superhero at a local comic con. She then had a fateful encounter with Lansing Batman who was recruiting a few like-minded heroes, and invited her to accompany him to the upcoming How-To Halloween 2017. And that's when everything changed.

During the festival, there was a little girl who came bouncing up with a big hug because she was so excited to see Wonder Woman. Katie learned from her mother that she was such a huge fan because of the fact that she was being bullied in school. Katie then spent some quality time talking with the girl, encouraging her and telling her how beautiful that she was. And with that, Katie's mission became clear. She now uses her superhero strength to make others feel powerful in her ongoing battle against bullying. She's also a board member at the League of Enchantment and donates her time for countless appearances at children's hospitals and charity events. Please join her in the fight and show your support at leagueofenchantment.org
